Official Weather Report—Fair; warmer.

There's a lot of satisfaction in knowing that your new Spring Suit or Top-coat bears the "M. S. M." label—for that stands for all the virtues in clothes building—quality—durability—fine workmanship—faultless fit—and unsurpassed value. A great line of Spring Suits at $16.50. Lots of men say they're well worth $20. Handsome Spring Top-coats in those fine new tan covers at $13.75—would be good value at $16.50.

MOY DONG JOU HERE

Reformer Brings Message to Chinese Minister.

INTIMATE FRIEND OF RULER

Most Influential Son of Flowery Kingdom in United States Working to Improve Conditions in His Native Land—Waiting for Death of Empress Dowager—Plans Reforms.

Carrying a special message from Hong You Wal, an intimate friend of the Emperor of China, and the most influential Chinaman in the United States, to Sir Chentung Liang-Cheng, the Chinese Minister to this country, Moy Dong Jou, president of the Reform Society, of Chicago, arrived in Washington last night. He went directly to the legation, 2001 Nineteenth street, where he remained some time with the Minister. The message was with reference to Chinese affairs both in this country and at home. Moy Dong Jou will leave for Chicago to-night.

Together with other prominent Chinamen from all parts of the country, the Chicago president was in New York for the last two weeks conferring with Hong You Wal. Der Chong, speaker of the Reform Societies of Washington and Baltimore, has also returned here, after spending fifteen days with the dignitaries in the metropolis. Moy Sing Get, secretary of the society at St. Paul, is another member of the party that has come to Washington.

One of Original Reformers. Several weeks ago Hong You Wal, who is one of the organizers of the Empire Constitutional Party of China, formerly the Chinese Empire Reform Association, and is now president of the order, returned from an extended trip abroad. Two weeks ago he was given a banquet in New York, at which 172 gold medals from the reform societies throughout the world were presented to him as a token of the high esteem in which he is held by his brothers.

Eventually, Hong You Wal will return to China to accept one of the highest positions in the land. He is a personal friend of the Emperor, and only a few weeks ago received a request from the Empress Dowager to return as one of her high commissioners. The offer was declined, however. The Empress Dowager is failing in health and it is believed that she cannot live a great while. Hong You Wal, it is understood, will return to China upon her death and become prime minister to the Emperor of China. When this is brought about, the Chinese of this country believe it will be the greatest accomplishment toward reform in the Orient that has developed since the organization of the association, ten years ago.

Anxious to Return to China. Hong You Wal is anxious to return to his native land when the proper time arrives. Then he will take up the work to which he has devoted most of his life—the upbuilding of China. Another idea of the president of the association is to eventually have viceroys elected by the people of the various provinces of the land.

Within the next few weeks Hong You Wal will make a trip through the South, and it is probable that he will stop off in Washington several days. In case he should, his arrival will be made a great event in Chinatown and a banquet will be given in his honor.

MRS. GORDON GIVES UP.

Abandons Her Fight for Custody of Foster Daughter.

Mrs. Maud T. Gordon yesterday abandoned her fight against her husband, John C. F. Gordon, for the custody of Dorothy Turner Gordon, their foster child. Mrs. Gordon, in her petition of March 12 last, alleged that she had secured a divorce and custody of the child by a decree of a Minnesota court August 15, 1902.

She claimed that her husband refused to turn the child over to her. Mr. Gordon, in his answer, attacked the jurisdiction of the Minnesota court, and he alleged the child was not born to the petitioner, that it was taken from the West Oakland Orphan Asylum March 2, 1893, and that it had never been legally adopted.

No testimony was heard on account of the order of dismissal of the petition filed by Mrs. Gordon. Justice Wright ordered that the child be given into the care and custody of Mr. Gordon.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

Deeds were filed yesterday conveying the property at 711 Thirteenth street northwest from James O'Donnell and wife to Bernard J. Cain. The property was sold several days ago through the office of Stone & Fairfax, the consideration being $13,500, or about $11 a square foot.

The deeds have also been filed conveying the property at 1311 H street northwest, sold by the same firm, for John Taylor Arms to J. Clarence Welsh, for $22,000.

Permits were issued yesterday to Bates and J. L. Warren to build a two-story and attic frame dwellings at 900 to 910 Webster street northwest; four similar houses at 4315 Brightwood avenue; four similar houses at 4314 to 4320 Ninth street northwest; four similar houses at 901 to 907 Varun street northwest. The estimated cost of all is $72,000. The plans were prepared by Hunter & Bell, architects, and the builder is Thomas H. Milton.

Temporary Roadway Ordered.

The Commissioners yesterday ordered that a temporary roadway be installed on First street northeast, between B street southeast and C street northeast, concerning the condition of which a number of complaints have recently been received. The condition of that street is due to the construction of the railroad tunnel to the new Union Station. It is stated that by next September the Commissioners will be justified in undertaking the work of repairs on a permanent basis.

CONTESTS EMMONS WILL.

Children Allege Undue Influence Over Father by Clara Emmons.

George E. Emmons, Charles M. Emmons, and Oliver A. Emmons, children of the late Richard Emmons, yesterday filed a caveat in the Probate Court against the admission to probate of a paper writing, dated October 15, 1904, purporting to be the will of the late Richard Emmons. It is alleged in the petition that the paper is not the last will of the deceased; that the deceased at the time he executed the paper was in such a state mentally and physically "that he was unable to resist the importunities, persuasion, and undue influence of Clara L. P. Emmons." Padgett & Foster appear for the petitioners.

James C. Leonard, by his will, filed for probate yesterday, leaves to his wife, Margaret J. Leonard, $5 per month during her widowhood, dividing the residue of his estate in equal shares among his children—Nellie A. Hutchinson, Gertrude G. Leonard, Thomas J. Leonard, Martha J. Leonard, William S. Leonard, and George W. Leonard. Thomas J. Leonard, a son of the testator, is appointed executor.

MAYOR GARRETT PERSEVERES.

Insists Shouts Chauffeur Will Be Brought to Trial.

The contest to have Vivian D. Bell, Theodore P. Shouts' chauffeur, appear before the Maryland authorities for his actions on the Conduit road more than a week ago has not been given up by any means, according to Mayor Garrett, of Glen Echo. If Bell goes to New York or remains in Washington, or even goes elsewhere, Mayor Garrett says the law will be enforced at all hazards.

Mayor Garrett is now in communication with R. B. Caverly, president of the automobile club, with the hope of having Bell volunteer to stand trial in the Maryland courts. Both are in favor of such an arrangement, but there is slight chance that they will be successful in their endeavors. Otherwise, the governor of whatever State Bell happens to be in will be requested for requisition papers for his extradition to the Maryland officials.

"If Bell goes to New York, I will ask Gov. Hughes to issue the proper papers," Mayor Garrett said last night. "I am determined that this case shall not be forgotten, or be called off, or die a natural death. It might require some time and much inconvenience to have Bell brought out to court, but I feel that eventually we will be successful."

Bell, it is understood, is still holding out and has made no promises, or even intimated that he would consent to go before a court to answer for attempting to run over Town Marshal Collins, and at the same time exceeding the speed limit on Conduit Road.
